Mandarin Language and Cultural Center

No.8 April. 2021 Milpitas

1630 Oakland Rd. Suite A-207, San Jose, CA 95131
Telephone: (408) 441-9114

1.) Holiday : No online class on 4/16 for spring break.

2.) School Activities:

i) Hundred Phrases Evaluation

Your child's teacher will announce the test date and test format for The Hundred Phrases Evaluation. The school will issue an electronic certificate to students who pass the evaluation.

ii) Spring Semester Reading Log Ends 5/14

Please encourage your children to continue reading; students who have read ten books will receive an electronic certificate. As we continue to hold classes online, you may consider alternatives such as audio books and e-books.

3.) 2021-2022 new student registration is now open, space available in PK and CFL classes

1) MLCC is a non-profit organization funded mainly by student tuition. Currently there is still space available in our PK and CFL classes. Our PK classes take children ages four and up, and CFLK&1 take students ages 5 and up. Please help pass the information on to your friends and coworkers who might be interested, and we appreciate your support.

To register for a heritage class:
https://forms.gle/QpLu8XamJn8VNHMx7

To register for a CFL class:
https://forms.gle/XDuqqgtff1nTQL59A

2) Registration for students outside of our school has started on 3/26. Enrollment is now on first come first serve basis. In case there are multiple applicants for one spot, the order of admission will be determined by the lottery system.

4.) Application for 2021 online summer program will start on 4/19

MLCC will continue to offer online summer program this year. Available classes include Character Reading, Reading Comprehension, Writing and more. Detailed information about summer program will be sent out to parents via email on 4/19.

5.) Next Newsletter to Come 5/6