iii) Hundred Phrase Evaluation

Phrase evaluation for each class began on 4/21. Thanks to parents who assisted with testing. Students will receive a certificate when they pass.

iv) Spring Reading Certificate

Please encourage your child to continue reading; those who have logged 10 books by 5/5 will receive a e-certificate.

v) 2023-2024 Class Coordinator & Librarian

We would like to thank the class coordinators and librarians for the current year for all of their hard work. Many thanks to the classes that have chosen their Class Coordinator and Librarian for the new school year. However, for those who have not made their selection yet, it is fine to do so after the fall semester starts. If you would like to volunteer your service, please contact the school office. We greatly appreciate your time and support.

vi) Ways to Keep Your Child Engaged in Chinese over the Summer

Encourage your child to speak Chinese more frequently, read more, learn more characters (you can use flashcards to aid in the learning process), or review the Hundred Phrases from the prior school year. Be sure to utilize the libraries in your community and check out the Chinese books available.

2) 2023-2024 School Year Class Information

i) Registration for the new school year is now complete. Refunds will be handled as follows: If you need to cancel your registration, please submit your request using this link <https://forms.gle/Aqtizuo4JxkGsoUj7> . Cancellation made before 8/1/23 will be charged a holding fee of $50; withdrawal before 9/11/23 will be charged $100, and no refunds will be granted after that.

ii) CFL K (for children ages 5-6) and CFL1 (for children ages 6-10)

The CFL program is specialized for students whose families do not speak Mandarin at home; CFLK takes 5-6 year olds, and CFL1 takes students ages 6 to 10. Classroom activities emphasize listening comprehension and speaking exercises. In addition to everyday conversation, students will also learn to recognize Chinese characters. Please pass on this information to your friends and family who might be interested. The link to register for CFL program is

iii) PK (for children ages 4-5) & K Classes (for children ages 5-6)

Our PK classes take children ages 4-5 from Mandarin speaking families. In this class, students will learn to recognize a total of 140 Chinese characters through singing and many fun classroom activities. Please help pass the information on to your friends and coworkers so that more students may benefit from this program. To register for heritage program, please go to
